The Bureau's attention is invited to Cleveland case captioned "UNKNOWN SUBJECTS: KILLING OF FOUR STUDENTS, KENT STATE UNIVERSITY (KSU), KENT, OHIO, MAY 4, 1970; ALLISON KRAUSE; JEFFREY GLENN MILLER; SANDRA LEE SCHEUER; WILLIAM SCHIROEDER - VICTIMS. CR."

As the Bureau is aware, over the weekend of May 1-2, 1970, student disorder broke out on the campus of KSU, Kent, Ohio. The Ohio National Guard (ONG) was summoned to the campus, and on May 4, 1970, during a student disruption four students were shot to death and nine others wounded, supposedly by the ONG.

For information of the Bureau, * is a free-lance photographer during his free time and has sold photographs to the KSU Police Department in the past. On May 4, 1970, informant was at KSU on his own volition taking photographs of the disorder. After the shooting had started, about six of the demonstrators observed informant taking photographs and, thinking he was a newspaper photographer, attacked him and commenced beating him up. Informant had armed himself with a .38 caliber snub nose revolver - his own personal property - and, after being knocked to the ground, drew his revolver from his pocket and ordered his attackers to withdraw. He then ran to nearest group of policemen and surrendered himself and his revolver to them.

Informant stated he was so scared that when the police asked him who he was he told them his name and said he was there taking photographs on behalf of the KSU Police and the FBI. During interview with informant, he admitted he was there on his own volition and not on FBI instructions, but at the time of the incident he was trembling and so scared that he could think of nothing else to say.

Prior to this incident, SA [redacted] who is acquainted with informant, saw him briefly during the disorder, and informant told him he was taking photographs which he was going to turn over to the KSU Police and that if we wanted copies we could possibly get them from the KSU Police.

Informant's revolver was examined by KSU Security Chief DONALD SCHWARTZMILLER immediately after informant had surrendered it, and it was fully loaded and had not been fired. At present no charges have been lodged against informant for carrying this weapon on campus.

Although informant's photograph has appeared in the newspapers, his association with the Bureau has not been divulged through local news media.

Based on above information, it is Cleveland's recommendation that * be continued as an informant until such time that his association with the Bureau is divulged or at such time he may have charges placed against him for carrying a concealed weapon on the KSU campus.

This matter being followed closely. Bureau will be kept advised.

NOTE:

Captioned individual, whose name is Terry Norman was approved as a probationary racial informant on [redacted] b7D - 4
He has been used by the Cleveland Division to furnish information concerning the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), formerly known as the American Nazi Party. Cleveland airtel sets out that captioned individual is a free-lance photographer and he was at Kent State University on 5/4/70 when the shooting occurred and four students were killed. He was not at Kent State at Bureau instructions but was there on his own volition taking photographs of the disorders. While taking photographs he advised he was set upon by some students and in order to protect himself he drew his .38 caliber snub nose revolver and ordered the attackers to withdraw.
